Chairman's Message

Once again I would like to welcome you to The Repertory Theatre to see our latest production Jekyll and Hyde.

A number of you will know that at Newcastle we love nothing better than performing a musical with a good story.

Jayne Eyre, Little Women, Frankenstein, The Railway Children, Goodnight Uncle Tom are all past productions taken from a classic novel. So it has given us great pleasure to work on yet another wonderful story. Of course the musical will not follow the book exactly, however you have the added blessing of some wonderful songs including the iconic 'This Is The Moment.'

This year you will notice that along side our regular performers are a number who are new to Newcastle. We seem to be attracting some of very talented people and as Chairman it gives me great pleasure in welcoming them to the society.

I would also like to take this opportunity of thanking my committee, the production team, the members and helpers both in the society and at the Rep for all of their hard work.

Lastly I would like to thank you the audience for without your support we would not be here today.

Please enjoy Jekyll & Hyde, you certainly won't fall asleep in this one.

Amanda Bosson - Chairman

Daphne Ratcliffe 21st December 1925 - 13th June 2016

When I joined the society in 1987 Daphne was part of a very industrious wardrobe team.

At that time many of the costumes were made in house and Daphne along with Georgine Machin and Dawn Eagles would sit working on their sewing machines while we were rehearsing for Fiddler On The Roof.

Daphne would alter the hired costumes and would sit every night in the dressing room assisting us with our costumes. She was still helping me to dress as recently as The Addams Family and was a happy and extremely kind lady.

We were all so fond of her and are lucky to have her daughter in law Alison as our current wardrobe mistress.

She will be sadly missed but I know she will be smiling down on her granddaughter Amy as she performs in this production.

Rest in Peace Daphne.
